President Scalo and Captain Henry Thibault gave a report on the upcoming Best Christmas Ever. Captain Henry and Jim Thompson have been on the radio promoting it. Cards have been passed out at all the kettles. The trucks are ready to be loaded. Crafts are ready for the children. We need a camera to print pictures there. Pat said she served a ladies club luncheon and they were talking about it. Ron Jones is going to talk to the Saxonburg Area Business Association about it today. He is also distributing flyers around his neighborhood. Lisa Campbell has put boxes around the BC3 Campus and flyers. Captain Henry said they have boxes at his church as well. Cletus has been emailing the PM Club about the event too.

Wayne Conley said everyone who comes to the Rotary reception will be charged $25, with $10 for each going toward the Best Christmas Ever. Margaret said the evening club members can put food in the boxes at the YWCA.

President Scalo read the list of members attending the reception and asked everyone else to please let him know as soon as possible if they are coming. The members who are helping should arrive around 5:00 p.m.

President Scalo presided over the induction of new members Lisa Campbell and Betty Fitzgerald.

Cindy Harbison announced there will be a Gala planning meeting at 7:30 a.m. on Thursday, December 10 at the CareerLink office.

There will be a Board Meeting immediately following today's general meeting.

The 50/50 drawing was won by Clint Champagne.

There being no other business, President Scalo adjourned the meeting with the Four Way Test at 7:44 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Cindy Harbison, Secretary
